Secretary-General's bulletin

Senior Management Group

The Secretary-General, for the purpose of defining and strengthening the work of the Senior Management Group within the executive management of the Organization, promulgates the following:

Section 1
Functions

The Senior Management Group will function as a forum for the exchange of information and experiences among heads of departments, offices, funds and programmes of the United Nations, pursuant to the provisions set out in the present bulletin. The Secretary-General may use the Senior Management Group to raise and provide guidance on important cross-cutting issues.

Section 2
Objectives

2.1 Serving as a forum for the exchange of information and experiences among heads of departments, offices, funds and programmes of the United Nations, the Senior Management Group will assist the Secretary-General in ensuring strategic coherence and direction in the work of the Organization.

2.2 The issues with which the Senior Management Group will deal may include:

(a) Policy-related matters in relation to complex challenges that cut across sectors and institutional boundaries;

(b) Strategic inputs that may be considered by United Nations legislative bodies;

(c) Issues relating to reform packages and any additional reform measures that affect the Organization as a whole;

(d) The preparation of policy papers and proposals, as may be required by the Secretary-General;

(e) Any other matter that the Secretary-General may wish to bring forward for discussion in the forum.
